

PAMELA HARRIS MEDAL LECTURE

This is an exciting opportunity for all nurses to get an educational grant to enabling them to present their work at national level and attend the BAPEN Conference in Belfast, 26th/27th November 2019. For further details see www.bapen.org.uk

We are looking for an abstract who's subject is directly related to improving patient care or management, and which can be expanded to form a 20 minute oral presentation followed by 5 minutes of questions.

The Nightingale Trust will give an educational grant of £500 to cover registration, travel and accommodation.

(Please note; you are responsible for booking your own registration, travel & accommodation.)

How to apply

Prepare your abstract following guidance from BAPEN www.bapen.org.uk Submit your abstract before the closing date Friday 21st June 2019.

Abstracts for the Pamela Harris Medal Lecture will be forwarded to the Nightingale Trust for judging. Results will be announced by Friday 26th July to allow successful applicants to complete 'early bird' registration with BAPEN in September 2019.
